Admission to Membership

Admission to and refusal of membership

1. a. All admissions to and refusals of membership shall be by the Council or as it may by regulation prescribe.

- b. An applicant for admission to membership must satisfy such requirements as to education, approved training, examinations, fitness for membership or otherwise as shall be prescribed in regulations.

Admission notwithstanding informality in training

- 3. The Council may, in any particular case in which it considers it desirable to do so, admit a person to membership notwithstanding any deficiency in his training contract or his approved training thereunder.

Applications for admission to membership

- 4.
 - a. An application for admission to membership shall be in writing and shall be signed by The applicant who shall thereby undertake, if admitted, to be bound by the Royal Charters, bye-laws of the Institute and regulations for the time being in force.
 - b. Every such application shall comply with such other requirements (not being inconsistent with these bye-laws) as shall be prescribed in regulations.

Honorary members

- 4A.
 - a. The Council may, by a resolution passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the members present and voting at a meeting, admit a person to be an honorary member of the Institute.
 - b. An honorary member (in his capacity as an honorary member):
 - I. shall not be bound by the Supplemental Charter and the bye-laws and regulations except where these make express provision relating to honorary members;
 - II. shall not be liable to pay any fee or subscription to the Institute;
 - III. is not entitled to receive notice of or attend or vote at any meetings of the Institute; and
 - IV. for the avoidance of doubt, shall not be subject to the provisions as to discipline set out in the Supplemental Charter and in the bye-laws.
 - c. The Council may by a resolution passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the members present and voting at a meeting, remove a person from honorary membership for good cause."

Members

Certificate of membership

- 5. A member shall be entitled on being admitted to membership.

Resignation of membership

- 6. A member may tender his resignation by notice to the Institute and on its acceptance by the Council, but not until then, he shall cease to be a member. Provided that any member whose notice of resignation has not been received before 1st February in any year shall remain liable for any fees or subscriptions in respect of that year.

Cessation of membership

- 7. A member shall thereupon cease to be a member:

- a. if he has a bankruptcy order made against him;
- b. if he fails to pay his annual subscription by 31st March in the year in which it becomes due or any increase in such subscription before the expiration of three months after the increase becomes due unless the Council otherwise decides; or
- c. if he fails to comply with any order as to fines and/or costs made by the Investigation Committee, the Disciplinary Committee or the Appeal Committee or any Tribunal appointed under the Investigation and Discipline Scheme by the date or dates upon which the same are due. Provided that in respect of a member whose registered address is outside the United Kingdom, the Council may, if it is satisfied that for legal reasons beyond the member's control he is unable to remit the amount due, extend the period within which the amount must be paid.

Return of certificates

- 8.
 - a. if a person ceases for any reason to be a member he shall thereupon forthwith return to the Institute all certificates issued to him by the Institute, including his certificate of membership, practising certificate and examination certificates (if any), unless the Council otherwise decides.
 - b. On the coming into force of any order made against a person, or body under the Disciplinary Bye-laws, that person or body shall forthwith return to the Institute all certificates issued to him or it by the Institute which are affected by the order.

Re-admission of former members

- 9. Any person who has ceased for any reason to be a member may be re-admitted to membership on such terms and conditions as the Council may consider appropriate.

Meetings of the Institute

Annual meeting

- 10.
 - a. The annual meeting shall be held in London on the first Tuesday in June in every year or at such other place in England or Wales or on such other day (being not earlier than the first Tuesday in May and not later than the second Tuesday in June) as the Council may decide.
 - b. The ordinary annual business of the Institute shall be the appointment or re-appointment of auditors and the reception and consideration of the annual report of the Council and the accounts of the Institute with the auditors' report thereon.

Special meeting

- 11.
 - a. Council may whenever it thinks fit convene a special meeting and shall do so:
 - i. on receipt by the Institute of a requisition in writing, signed by not less than two hundred and fifty members and stating the object of the proposed meeting, provided both that the said requisition requires the special meeting to be held on the same day as the annual meeting of the Institute and that the Institute has received the said requisition not later than 21 February in the relevant year; or

- II. within 56 days from the receipt by the Institute of a requisition in writing signed by not less than one per cent of the members as at the end of the calendar year prior to the date of the said requisition and stating the object of the proposed meeting.

- b. A requisition may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more members.

Meeting at more than one place

- 11A a. The Council may resolve to enable members to attend an annual or special meeting by simultaneous attendance and participation at more than one place. The members present in person or by proxy at each meeting place shall be counted in the quorum for, and entitled to vote at, the meeting in question. That meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if the chairman of the meeting is satisfied that members attending at all the meeting places are able to:
- i. participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened;
 - II. hear and see all persons who speak (whether by the use of microphones, loudspeakers, audio-visual communications equipment or otherwise) in the principal meeting place (as defined in paragraph (b) of this bye-law) and any other meeting place; and
 - III. be heard and seen by all other persons so present in the same way.
- b. The meeting shall be deemed to take place at the place at which the chairman of the meeting is present (the "principal meeting place").

Notice of meetings

12. a. An annual or special meeting shall be called by at least twenty-one days' notice, exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day on which the meeting is to be held. The notice shall specify the date, time and place of the meeting and, in the case of a meeting at which business other than the ordinary annual business of the Institute is to be transacted, the general nature of that business and shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned to all members other than any as are not entitled to receive notices from the Institute. In the case of an annual meeting, the notice shall also specify the meeting as such and shall be accompanied by a copy of the annual report of the Council, subject to paragraph (c) of this bye-law a summary financial statement which complies with paragraph (d) of this bye-law, a list of the persons nominated or deemed to be nominated as auditors and particulars of any motions to be brought before the meeting under bye-law 13 (notice of motions).
- b. Every notice calling a meeting of the Institute shall be accompanied by a form of proxy complying with the provisions of bye-law 23 (form of proxy). Except that the Institute shall not be obliged to send out forms of proxy to the members for use at any adjourned meeting.
- c. The Institute shall send a copy of its accounts with the auditors' report thereon, instead of a summary financial statement, to any member who has given written notification to that effect to the Institute in such form as the Council may determine or accept and who has not revoked it.

- d. Every summary financial statement shall be derived from the accounts of the Institute, shall include the auditors' statement thereon and shall have been approved by the Council.

Notice of motions

- 13. A member wishing to bring before the annual meeting any motion not relating to the ordinary annual business of the Institute may do so provided that:
 - a. the Institute has received notice of the proposed motion not later than 21st February in the relevant year;
 - b. the Institute has received notice from not less than ten members entitled to vote at the annual meeting not later than 21st February in the relevant year expressing their desire that the proposed motion should be brought before the annual meeting; and
 - c. the proposed motion relates to matters affecting the Institute or the accountancy profession.

- 13A. The Institute shall circulate with the notice calling the annual meeting before which any such motion as is referred to in bye-law 13 (notice of motions) is to be brought a statement not exceeding 1,000 words explaining the grounds on which the said motion is to be proposed.

Provided that:

- a. the Institute shall have received notice to that effect and a copy of the said statement not later than 21st February in the relevant year; and
- b. the Institute shall not be bound to circulate a statement if it is reasonably satisfied that the rights conferred by this bye-law are being abused to secure needless publicity for a defamatory matter.

Transmission of accompanying documents

- 13B. Notwithstanding anything in these bye-laws to the contrary any communication to be given, sent, supplied, delivered or provided to any person by the Institute, whether pursuant to the Charter, these bye-laws or otherwise may be delivered or supplied in electronic form or by making them available on a website in accordance with these bye-laws.

Chairman of meeting

- 14. At all meetings of the Institute the President or in his absence the Deputy-President or in his absence the Vice-President shall be chairman. If at any meeting the President, Deputy-President and Vice-President are not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the meeting and willing to act, the members of the Council present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting. If no member of the Council is present or if all the members of the Council present decline to take the chair, the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

Quorum at meetings

15. Subject as hereinafter provided with regard to adjourned meetings, the quorum at any annual meeting shall be twenty members present in person and the quorum at any special meeting shall be thirty members present in person. No business other than the appointment of a chairman shall be transacted at any annual or special meeting unless the requisite quorum is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.

Lack of quorum

 - a. If within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for an annual meeting (or such longer interval as the chairman of the meeting may determine) a quorum is not present, or if during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such other date (being not less than fourteen nor more than twenty-eight days thereafter) and such time and place as the chairman of the meeting may determine. At such adjourned meeting any members present in person shall be a quorum and shall have power to pass any resolution and to transact all business which could lawfully have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. At least seven days' notice of any meeting adjourned through want of a quorum shall be given in the same manner as for the original meeting.
 - b. If within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for a special meeting (or such longer interval as the chairman of the meeting may determine) a quorum is not present, or if during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall be dissolved.

Adjournment of meetings

17. Subject to these bye-laws the chairman of any meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time (or sine die) and from place to place. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business which might lawfully have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Where a meeting is adjourned sine die, the date, time and place for the adjourned meeting shall be fixed by the Council and not less than seven days' notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as for the original meeting. Subject thereto and as provided in bye-law 16 (lack of quorum), no notice need be given of an adjourned meeting unless it be so directed in the resolution for adjournment.

Amendment to resolutions

 - a. No amendment shall be permitted to any resolution to alter, amend or add to the Supplemental Charter or these bye-laws or the Disciplinary Bye-laws except with the consent of the chairman of the meeting and then only if in the opinion of the chairman (whose decision shall be final) the amendment is one of form and not of substance.
 - b. If an amendment is proposed to any resolution under consideration but is in good faith ruled out of order by the chairman of the meeting the proceedings on the substantive resolution shall not be invalidated by any error in such ruling.

Polls

 - a. At any annual or special meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless:

- i. before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is demanded by the chairman of the meeting or by at least twenty-five members present in person or by proxy; or
 - ii. the resolution is to alter, amend or add to the Supplemental Charter or these bye-laws or the Disciplinary Bye-laws, in which event a poll shall be taken without any show of hands or demand as aforesaid.
- b. A demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn. A demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- c. If a poll is duly demanded or is required to be taken, it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman of the meeting may direct. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded or required to be taken. The chairman of the meeting may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and may adjourn the meeting to a date, time and place fixed by him for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll.
- d. A poll demanded on the choice of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded or required to be taken on any other question shall be taken either immediately or at such subsequent date (being not more than twenty-eight days after the date of the meeting), time and place as the chairman of the meeting may direct. Any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded or is required may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately.
- e. On a poll, votes may be given personally or by proxy.

Each member to have one vote

20. On a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote and on a poll every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote.

Chairman's casting vote

21. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded or is required to be taken shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

Validity and result of vote

22. a. No objection shall be raised as to the admissibility of any vote except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is or may be given or tendered. Every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final.
- b. Unless a poll is taken a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book, shall be conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded for or against the resolution.

Form of proxy

23. a. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing in such form as the Council may determine or accept and shall be signed by the appointor or his attorney duly authorised in writing. The signature on such instrument need not be witnessed.
- b. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.

Proxy must be a member

24. A proxy must be a member.

Deposit of proxy

25. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed, or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority, must be deposited at such place or one of such places (if any) as may be specified for that purpose in or by way of note to or in any document accompanying the notice convening the meeting or, if no place is so specified, with the head of staff at such place within the United Kingdom as the Council may from time to time prescribe not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than at or on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) for the taking of the poll at which it is to be used. In default it shall not be treated as valid. The instrument shall, unless the contrary is stated thereon, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates.
- 25A. a. The Council may allow a proxy to be appointed, and the instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed, or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority, to be sent, in electronic form or by means of a website, on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit. Provided that such instrument and other documents must be deposited by the time specified in bye-law 25
- b. If and to the extent that the Council allows appointments to be made and documents to be sent in this way, any provisions of these bye-laws which are inconsistent therewith shall be of no effect in relation thereto. The Council may require such evidence it thinks fit to satisfy itself that any such appointment or document is genuine.

Validity of vote by proxy

26. A vote given or demand for a poll made in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the appointor or the revocation of the appointment of the proxy or of the authority under which the appointment was made: Provided that no notice of such death, insanity or revocation was received at the address for the time being applicable for the purposes of bye-law 25 (deposit of proxy) before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than at or on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for the taking of the poll at which the proxy is used.

Minutes of meetings of the Institute

27. Proper minutes shall be recorded of all resolutions and proceedings of meetings of the Institute. Every minute signed by the chairman of the meeting to which it relates or by the chairman of a subsequent meeting shall be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated.

Fees and subscriptions

28. The fees and subscriptions payable by members shall be those in force immediately before this bye-law came into effect or as from time to time approved by members at a meeting in accordance with bye-law 31.

Annual subscriptions: when payable

29. All annual subscriptions payable under these bye-laws shall be due and payable on 1st January in each year or, in the case of members admitted after that date, as shall be prescribed in regulations.

Power to waive, reduce, remit or refund fees and subscriptions

30. Notwithstanding anything contained in these bye-laws the whole or any part of any fees or subscriptions payable by a member may be waived, reduced, remitted or refunded and the period within which payment must be made may be extended in such manner as may be prescribed in regulations.

Power to vary fees and subscriptions

31. The Institute may from time to time by resolution passed by a majority of the members present and voting (in person or by proxy) on a poll at a meeting change the then prevailing rates or types of fees and subscriptions payable by any or all members.

Practice Assurance Fees

- 31A. For the purposes of bye-laws 28, 30 and 31 the term "fees" does not include the fees payable under bye-law 54.

The Council

Composition of Council

32. The Council shall consist of not more than 85 elected members, not more than 20 co-opted members appointed under bye-law 36 (co-opted members of Council), not more than five ex officio members appointed under bye-law 36A and not more than 10 ex officio members appointed under bye-law 36B (ex officio members of Council) and may act notwithstanding any vacancy in its body.

Election by constituencies

33. Election to the Council shall be on the basis of constituencies. The number and areas and/or type of such constituencies and the number of members which each constituency is to be entitled to elect to the Council shall be such as may be prescribed in regulations: and such regulations shall also, subject to any express provisions of these bye-laws, prescribe:
- i. the manner and conduct of Council elections including but not limited to the timing of such elections, the notices to be issued, the procedure for nominating candidates, the procedure for holding, voting at, determining and announcing the results of elections and the procedure for filling any casual vacancies among the elected members of the Council; and
 - ii. eligibility to stand for election, to join in nominating a member for election, and to vote on any election to the Council in respect of any particular constituency.

34. [Deleted]

Term of office of elected members

35. a. An elected member's term of office is in these bye-laws referred to as his 'elected term of office'.
- b. An elected member of the Council shall assume office at the conclusion of the annual meeting of the Institute next following his election. Provided that, if a vacancy occurs among the elected members of the Council otherwise than because an elected member of the Council has come to the end of his elected term of office and otherwise than at the conclusion of an annual meeting, as the Council may decide, the person who is elected to fill such vacancy shall assume office fourteen clear days after election.
- c. An elected member of the Council shall, subject to these bye-laws and the Disciplinary Bye-laws, be entitled to hold office until the conclusion of the fourth annual meeting after that at which he assumed office.
- d. An elected member of Council shall be eligible for re-election at the election immediately preceding the Annual Meeting at which he would otherwise retire from office.
- e. If a vacancy occurs among the elected members of the Council otherwise than because an elected member of the Council has come to the end of his elected term of office³, the person who is elected to fill such vacancy shall hold office only for the remainder of the elected term of office of the elected member of the Council whose vacancy he fills; and in relation to any such person the expression 'elected term of office' shall be construed accordingly.

36. a. The Council may appoint any member or provisional member to be a co-opted member of the Council provided that there shall not be more than twenty-five co-opted members in office at any one time.
- b. A co-opted member of the Council shall not be appointed for a term exceeding four years at any one time. Subject as aforesaid, a co-opted member of the Council whose term of appointment has expired shall be eligible for further co-option.
- c. Every appointment of a co-opted member of the Council shall be reported to the next succeeding annual meeting.

Ex officio members of Council

- 36A. A member of the Council chosen as President, Deputy-President or Vice-President in Accordance with bye-law 43 (election of President, Deputy-President and Vice-President) shall thereupon become an ex officio member of the Council (in substitution for any other membership of the Council which shall be deemed to have been vacated) and shall remain an ex officio member of the Council until he ceases to hold the office of President, Deputy-President or Vice-President as the case may be. Provided that, except where he is, as President, removed from office pursuant to bye-law 43A, a Past-President shall retain ex officio membership of the Council until the conclusion of the second annual meeting after the annual meeting held in the year in which he ceases to hold the office of President.

36B. Such other holders of offices within the Institute who are not already members of the Council as the Council may determine shall become ex officio members of the Council until they cease to hold the office concerned provided that there shall not be more than 10 members in office at any one time by virtue of this bye-law.

Vacation of office of Council members

37. The office of a member of the Council shall be vacated:

- a. if he ceases to be a member or provisional member of the Institute;
- b. if an adverse finding, other than a finding of a prima facie case with an order that no further action be taken, is made against him under the Investigation and Discipline Scheme or the Disciplinary Bye-laws; or
- c. if he has been absent from three or more consecutive meetings of the Council without the consent of the Council.

Election to Council - disciplinary orders against candidates

37A. A member or provisional member shall not be eligible for election or appointment to Council if within the period of 10 years prior to such proposed election or appointment an adverse finding other than a finding of a prima facie case with an order that no further action be taken has been made against him under an Investigation and Discipline Scheme or the Disciplinary Bye-laws or any equivalent provision previously in force.

Resignation of Council members

38. A member of the Council may tender his resignation of office by notice to the Council. On its acceptance by the Council, but not until then, he shall cease to be a member of the Council.

Removal of Council members

39. The Institute may by resolution passed by a majority of the members present and voting (in person or by proxy) at a special meeting convened for the purpose remove any member of the Council from his office before the expiration of his period of office. No resolution to remove a member of the Council under this bye-law shall be effective unless notice of the intention to propose it has been given to the Institute not less than twenty-eight days before the meeting at which it is to be proposed. The Institute shall give members notice of any such resolution at the same time and in the same manner as it gives notice of the meeting. A copy of any such notice to propose such a resolution shall be sent to the member of the Council concerned forthwith upon receipt by the Institute.

Proceedings of the Council

Meetings of Council

40. a. Subject to these bye-laws the Council shall meet for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its proceedings as it may think fit. The Council shall be deemed to meet if, notwithstanding that the members of Council are in separate locations, they are nonetheless linked by conference telephone, conference video link or other communication equipment which allows those participating to hear and speak to each other. A quorum in that event shall be the number of persons required for a quorum in accordance with bye-law who are so linked. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled or, if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting then is.

- b. A meeting of the Council may at any time be called by order of the President, Deputy-President or Vice-President, or at the request in writing, addressed to the head of staff, of five members of the Council.
- c. At least three days' notice of a meeting of the Council shall be delivered or sent to each member of the Council: Provided that if the President, Deputy-President or Vice-President when ordering a meeting certifies in writing that an emergency exists, only one day's notice as aforesaid need be delivered or sent. The period of notice shall in each case be exclusive of the day on which the notice is delivered or sent and of the day on which the meeting is to be held. Any such notice shall contain as far as is practicable a statement of the business to be transacted at such meeting. Any such notice shall be taken as duly delivered or sent unless the contrary be shown. The accidental failure to send or the non-receipt by any member of the Council of any notice or the non-existence in fact of the certified emergency shall not invalidate the relevant meeting.

Adjournment of meetings

- 41. Subject to these bye-laws the chairman of any meeting of the Council may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. No notice need be given of an adjourned meeting unless it be so directed in the resolution for adjournment.

Quorum of Council

- 42. Twelve members of the Council shall form a quorum at all meetings of the Council.

Election of President, Deputy-President and Vice-President

- 43. At the first meeting of the Council after every annual meeting the members of the Council present shall choose one of the members of the Council as President, another as Deputy-President and another as Vice-President. Subject to bye-law 43A (removal of President, Deputy-President and Vice-President), the members so chosen shall hold the office of President, Deputy-President and Vice-President respectively until the first meeting of the Council held after the next succeeding annual meeting. A member of Council who has previously been chosen as President, Deputy-President or Vice-President shall be eligible to be chosen as President, Deputy-President or Vice-President for a second or subsequent period of office. Any vacancy in any of the offices of President, Deputy-President and Vice-President shall be filled at one or the other of the two meetings of the Council next following the occurrence of such vacancy or as the Council may otherwise determine.

Removal of President, Deputy-President and/or Vice-President

- 43A. The Council may, by a resolution passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the members present and voting at a meeting, remove from office the President, Deputy-President and/or Vice-President before the expiration of his period of office.

Ex officio membership of Committees

44. The President, the Deputy-President and the Vice-President shall by virtue of their offices be members of all Committees other than the ICAEW Regulatory Board, Investigation Committee, the Disciplinary Committee and the Appeal Committee and any Committee carrying out the Institute's functions as a regulator under statute.

Chairman of Council

45. At the first meeting of the Council after every annual meeting the members of the Council present shall appoint one of the members of the Council as the chairman of Council. The person so appointed shall preside as chairman at all meetings of the Council, provided that in his absence at any meeting of the Council the members of the Council present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of that meeting.

Voting at meetings of Council

46. Subject to Bye-law 4A, at all meetings of the Council the vote of a majority of those present and voting shall prevail. In the case of an equality of votes the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote in addition to his original vote.

Minutes of meetings of Council and Committees

47. Proper minutes shall be recorded of all resolutions and proceedings of meetings of the Council and of Committees and Sub-committees. Every minute signed by the chairman of the meeting to which it relates or by the chairman of a subsequent meeting shall be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated.

Validity of proceedings

48. All acts done by any meeting of the Council, or of any Committee or Sub-committee, or by any person acting as a member of the Council or as a member of the Committee or Sub-committee, shall as regards all persons dealing in good faith with the Institute, notwithstanding that there was some defect in the appointment of any of the persons acting as aforesaid, or that any such persons had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and had continued to be a member of the Council or a member of the Committee or Sub-committee and had been entitled to vote.

Delegation

Committees, Sub-committees or other person or persons

49. a. Subject to the Supplemental Charter and these bye-laws, the Council may delegate any of its powers, authorities or discretions to committees consisting of such person or persons (whether members of the Council or not) or to such person or persons (whether members of the Council or not) and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit and may from time to time revoke or alter any of such powers, authorities or discretions so delegated.
- b. Any Committee may, subject to any such terms and conditions as aforesaid, delegate any of its powers, authorities or discretions to a sub-committee consisting of such person or persons (whether members of the Council or of such Committee or not) or to such person or persons (whether members of the Council or of such Committee or not) and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit and may from time to time revoke or alter any of such powers, authorities or discretions so delegated.

- c. Subject to these bye-laws and to any terms and conditions imposed by the Council or, in the case of a Sub-committee, the Committee by which it was formed, any Committee or Sub-committee may meet for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit. A Committee or Sub-committee shall be deemed to meet if, notwithstanding that the members of the Committee or Sub-committee are in separate locations, they are nonetheless linked by conference telephone, conference video link or other communication equipment which allows those participating to hear and speak to each other. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled or, if there is no such group, where the Chairman of the meeting then is.
- d. Insofar as any power, authority or discretion is delegated to a Committee, Sub-committee or any other person pursuant to these bye-laws, any reference in these bye-laws to the exercise by the Council or Committee of the power, authority or discretion so delegated shall be construed as if it were a reference to the exercise thereof by such Committee, Sub-committee or person, as the case may be.
- e. Bye-law 36 of the Disciplinary Bye-laws (publicity for the disciplinary process) shall apply to chairmen of any Committees appointed for the purposes of paragraph (b) of Article 16 of the Supplemental Charter in the same way (after making any necessary changes) as it applies to the Chairman of the Investigation Committee.

Head of staff

- 50.
- a. The head of staff of the Institute, being the most senior member of the paid staff of the Institute, shall be appointed by the Council on such terms and for such period as it thinks fit. The formal title of the head of staff shall be as Council may from time to time determine.
 - b. The head of staff may, subject to any such terms and conditions as the Council thinks fit, delegate any of his powers, authorities and discretions (including, without limitation, any powers, authorities and discretions delegated to him pursuant to bye-law 49 (concerning delegation to person or persons)) to such person or persons and on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit and may from time to time revoke or alter any of such powers, authorities or discretions so delegated.
 - c. Insofar as any power, authority or discretion is delegated by the head of staff to any other person pursuant to this bye-law, any reference in these bye-laws or the Disciplinary Bye-laws to the exercise by the head of staff of the power, authority or discretion so delegated shall be construed as if it were a reference to the exercise thereof by such person.

[Note (this note does not form part of the Principal bye-laws):

The Council has determined that the head of staff shall be called the Chief Executive.]

Public Practice

Conditions for engaging in public practice

- 51.
- a. Subject as may be provided in regulations, a member shall be entitled to engage in public practice in the United Kingdom or any other member state of the European Economic Area only if he holds a current practising certificate.

- b. The circumstances in which a member is, by virtue of being a director of a body corporate or a member of a limited liability partnership, to be regarded as engaging in public practice and any other requirements governing such practice shall be those prescribed in regulations. A member shall not engage in public practice otherwise than in accordance with such regulations or as a sole practitioner or as a partner in a firm.

Eligibility to hold practising certificate

- 52. a. Subject to paragraph (b) of this bye-law and to bye-laws 22 (powers of tribunal) and 30 (intervention orders) of the Disciplinary Bye-laws, a member shall be eligible to hold a practising certificate if he satisfies such requirements as shall be prescribed in regulations.
- b. A member who fails to pay his practising certificate fee by 31st March in the year in which it becomes due or before the expiration of three months after it has become due shall thereupon cease to be eligible for such a certificate unless the Council otherwise decides.

Issue of practising certificates

- 53. a. Practising certificates shall normally be issued for a period not exceeding twelve months and ending on 31st December and shall, subject to bye-law 52(b) (failure to pay practising certificate fee), be renewed automatically for a period of twelve months on 1st January next following when the appropriate renewal fee shall become due and payable.
 - b. Practising certificates shall be in such form or forms as may be prescribed in regulations.
 - c. A member who ceases to be eligible for a practising certificate shall forthwith return his certificate to the Institute but shall be granted a further certificate if and when he again becomes so eligible.
- 54. a. Members and member firms shall co-operate with any scheme, system, or arrangements for inspection, monitoring and review of their professional and business efficiency and competence established by the Institute and shall comply with any regulations made in respect thereof.
 - b. A member holding a practising certificate shall pay such fee or fees in respect of such scheme, system or arrangement as may from time to time be determined by the Council in its absolute discretion.
 - c. If a member fails to pay any fee or fees due under paragraph (b) he shall cease to be eligible for a practising certificate.
 - d. For the purposes of this bye-law a firm which describes itself as "Chartered Accountants" shall be presumed to be a member firm unless it proves it is not.

Use of designations

55. a. Save as permitted by regulation a member practising under the title of a firm in partnership with any person not a member nor a member of one or other of such institutes, societies or bodies of accountants as may be approved by the Council shall not use after or in conjunction with the title of the firm the initials FCA or ACA or describe the firm in any way whatever as chartered accountants.
- b. Save as permitted by regulation a member practising as a director of a body corporate or as a member of a limited liability partnership shall not use after or in conjunction with the title of that body the initials F.C.A. or A.C.A. or describe the body in any way whatever as chartered accountants.

Continuing Professional Development

56. Except as may be provided in regulations or regulations a member shall:
- a. keep under review his needs for training and development having regard to the professional and other work he undertakes;
- b. where such a review identifies a specific need for training or development act promptly to meet such need; and
- c. certify annually to the Institute compliance with these provisions and, if requested by the Institute, provide such evidence of compliance as may be required.

57. Deleted

Appeals

58. a. Except as provided in these bye-laws or in regulations, an applicant for membership, provisional member, a former provisional member and a member shall each have the right to appeal against any decision made concerning him under or pursuant to these bye-laws or regulations or regulation (including decisions concerning admission to membership, eligibility for practising certificates and entitlement to fellowship).
- b. The provisions governing the hearing of any such appeal shall be prescribed in regulations.

Common Seal

Custody of Common Seal

59. The Common Seal shall be kept in such custody as the Council may determine.

Use of Common Seal

60. The Common Seal shall not be affixed to any instrument except by order of the Council or of a Committee or Sub-committee or of any person authorised by the Council in that behalf and in the presence of two members of the Council. Every such instrument shall be signed by the two members of the Council in whose presence the Seal is affixed and by the head of staff. Provided that it shall not be necessary for any member of the Council to be present when the Seal is affixed to any such certificate as is referred to in bye-law 5 (certificate of membership).

It shall be sufficient for the signatures of the two members of the Council and the head of staff upon any such certificate to be facsimile signatures.

Authentication of Documents

61. Any member of the Council or the head of staff or any person appointed by the Council for the purpose shall have power to authenticate any document affecting the constitution of the Institute and any resolution passed at an annual meeting or a special meeting or at a meeting of the Council or of any Committee or Sub-committee, and any book, record, document or account relating to the business of the Institute, and to certify copies thereof or extracts therefrom as true copies or extracts. A document purporting to be a copy of any such resolution, or an extract from the minutes of any such meeting, which is certified as aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with the Institute upon the faith thereof that such resolution has been duly passed or, as the case may be, that any minute so extracted is a true and accurate record of proceedings at a duly constituted meeting.

Audit

Appointment of auditors

62. a. The members shall at each annual meeting appoint at least one but not more than two members in practice or at least one but not more than two firms to be the auditor or auditors of the Institute.
- b. No member of the Council shall be eligible for appointment as auditor in a personal capacity. No firm in which a member of the Council is a director, partner, member (if the firm is a limited liability partnership), or employee shall be eligible for appointment as auditor.
- c. In the event of any vacancy occurring in the office of auditor between annual meetings or in the event of a vacancy not being filled at an annual meeting, the said vacancy may be filled by the Council at a meeting summoned with notice of the object provided that during such vacancy a continuing auditor may act alone.
- d. The remuneration, if any, of the auditor or auditors so appointed shall be determined either by the meeting or in such manner as the meeting may resolve.
- e. In this bye-law the expression 'firm' means a partnership or body corporate (including a limited liability partnership) engaged in public practice.

Retirement of auditors

63. The auditor or auditors shall retire at the next annual meeting after his or their appointment, but shall be eligible for re-appointment.

Nomination of auditors

64. Each retiring auditor shall, unless he has notified the Council not later than 24th March preceding the date of the annual meeting that he does not wish to offer himself for re-appointment, be deemed to be nominated for re-appointment at such meeting. Every other candidate for appointment as an auditor shall be nominated in writing by the Council. Notice of the names of all candidates nominated for appointment or deemed to be nominated for re-appointment shall be sent to all members with the notice calling the annual meeting.

Removal of auditors

65. The Institute may, by a resolution passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the members present and voting (in person or by proxy) at a special meeting convened for the purpose, remove any auditor from his office before the expiration of his period of office. The Institute may also by a resolution passed by a majority of the members present and voting (in person or by proxy), at such a meeting appoint in place of any auditor so removed another member in practice. In default of such an appointment, the Council may at a meeting summoned with notice of the object appoint an auditor in the place of the auditor so removed.

Auditor's right to attend meetings

66. An auditor shall be entitled to attend any annual meeting or special meeting and to receive all notices of and other communications relating to any such meeting which any member is entitled to receive and to be heard at any such meeting on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns him as auditor.

Notices

67. a. Any notice required to be given for the purposes of these bye-laws shall be in writing.
- b. Any communication required to be given, delivered or sent to members under or in connection with these bye-laws may be given or sent by pre-paid post addressed to them at their registered address.
- c. Any communication (other than a form of proxy) required to be given, delivered or sent to the Institute under or in connection with these bye-laws shall, subject to paragraph (e) of this bye-law, be given or sent by pre-paid post addressed to the Institute at its principal London address for the time being and marked for the attention of the head of staff.
- d. Where any communication is given, delivered or sent by post, service shall be deemed to have been effected at the expiration of 48 hours after the time when such communication is posted and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the cover containing such communication was properly addressed, stamped and posted.
- e. Subject to paragraph (f), and to paragraph (u) the Institute may send or supply all communications to members, and receive all communications from members, in electronic form and all communications delivered in accordance with these bye-laws shall be deemed to be validly given, sent or supplied for the purposes of the Supplemental Charter, the Principal Bye-laws and any regulations.
- f. A communication may only be sent or supplied by the Institute in electronic form to a member who has agreed (generally or specifically) that the communication may be sent or supplied in that form (and has not revoked that agreement).
- g. Where the communication is sent or supplied in electronic form it may only be sent or supplied to an address specified for the purpose by the intended recipient (generally or specifically).

- i. Where the communication is sent or supplied in electronic form by post or by hand, it must be handed to the recipient or sent or supplied to an address to which it could be validly sent if it were in hard copy form.
 - ii. Any communication which is sent or supplied by the Institute in electronic form shall be deemed to have been received by the intended recipient 24 hours after it was transmitted, and in proving such receipt it shall be sufficient to show that such communication was properly addressed.
- h. A communication is validly sent or supplied by the Institute if it is made available on a website in accordance with these bye-laws.
- i. A communication may only be sent or supplied to a member by being made available on a website if the person:
• has agreed (generally or specifically) that the communication may be sent or supplied to him in that manner, or
- j. is taken to have so agreed under paragraph (k) hereof and has not revoked that agreement.
- k. This paragraph applies to any communication to be sent or supplied to a member:
 - i. To the extent the Principal Bye-laws or any regulations authorise the Institute to send or supply communications to members by making them available on a website, a member in relation to whom the following conditions are met is taken to have agreed that the Institute may send or supply communications to him in that manner.
 - ii. The conditions are that:
 - the member has been asked individually by the Institute to agree that the Institute may send or supply communications generally, or the document or information in question, to him by means of a website, and
 - the Institute has not received a response within the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the Institute's request was sent.
- l. A member is not taken to have so agreed if the Institute's request:
 - i. did not state clearly what the effect of failure to respond would be; or
 - ii. was sent less than twelve months after a previous request made to him for the purpose of this paragraph in respect of the same or a similar class of communication.
- m. A communication authorised or required to be sent or supplied by means of a website must be made available in a form, and by a means, that the Institute reasonably believes will enable the member:
 - i. to read it; and
 - ii. to retain a copy of it.
- n. For this purpose a communication can be read only if:
 - i. it can be read with the naked eye; or
 - ii. to the extent that it consists of images (for example photographs, pictures, maps, plans or drawings), it can be seen with the naked eye.

- o. The Institute must notify the intended recipient of:
 - i. the presence of the communication on the website;
 - ii. the address of the website;
 - iii. the place on the website where it may be accessed; and
 - iv. how to access the communication.
- p. The communication is taken to be sent:
 - i. on the date on which the notification required by this paragraph is sent; or
 - ii. if later, the date on which the communication first appears on the website after that notification is sent.
- q. The Institute must make the communication available on the website throughout:
 - i. the period specified by any provision of the Supplemental Charter, the Principal Bye-laws or any regulation, or
 - ii. if no such period is specified, the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the notification required under paragraph (p) hereof, is sent to the person in question.
- r. For the purposes of paragraph 12, a failure to make any communication available on a website throughout the period shall be disregarded if:
 - i. it is made available on the website for part of that period, and
 - ii. the failure to make it available throughout that period is wholly attributable to circumstances that it would not be reasonable to have expected the Institute to prevent or avoid.
- s. Any communication which is sent or supplied by the Institute by means of a website.
- t. A communication that is sent or supplied otherwise than in hard copy form or in electronic form or by means of a website is validly sent or supplied if it is sent or supplied in a form or manner that has been agreed by the member or is sent by pre-paid post addressed to them at their registered address.
- u. The Institute may notify members in writing of an address for the purpose of its receiving communications from members by such electronic form as the Council may determine and may specify what communications may be sent to it in electronic form and having done so shall be deemed to have agreed to receive any such notice or other document from members by such electronic form.

Suspension of postal services

68. If at any time by reason of the suspension or curtailment of postal services within the United Kingdom the Institute is unable to give notice by post in hard copy of a meeting of members such notice shall be deemed to have been given to all members entitled to receive such notice in hard copy form if such notice is advertised on the same date in at least four national daily newspapers with appropriate circulation and such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the day when the advertisement appears. In any such case the Institute shall (i) make such notice available on a website from the date of such advertisement until the conclusion of the meeting or any adjournment thereof and (ii) send confirmatory copies of the notice by post to such members if at least seven days prior to the meeting the posting of notices to addresses throughout the United Kingdom again becomes practicable.

Indemnity and Expenses

Indemnification of Council members and others

69. Every member of the Council, the head of staff and every auditor of the Institute shall be indemnified by the Institute against all losses and expenses incurred by him in or about the discharge of his duties, except such as happen from his own respective wilful default or, in the case of an auditor, his own negligence or wilful default or that of any partner or employee of such auditor.

Council members and others not to be liable for losses

70. Neither any member of the Council nor the head of staff nor any auditor of the Institute shall be liable for any other member of the Council or the head of staff or any auditor of the Institute, or for joining in any receipt or document, or for any act of conformity, or for any loss or expense happening to the Institute, unless the same happen from his own wilful default, or in the case of an auditor from his own negligence or wilful default or that of any partner or employee of such auditor.

Expenses of members of Council

71. The Council may pay to any member who is required to attend a meeting of the Council or of any Committee or Sub-committee and to any member of the Council who is required to attend a meeting of the Council or of any Committee or Sub-committee or of the Institute and to any member or member of the Council who is required to attend any other meeting for the purposes of the Institute a reasonable subsistence allowance on each occasion of attending such a meeting and reasonable travel costs to and from the place of the meeting. The Council may also pay the expenses reasonably and properly incurred by the President, Deputy-President, Vice-President or any member of the Council when acting in an official capacity on behalf of the Institute.
